1117	Additional Comments:
Response #1	The instructor was always there to help
Response #2	Great instructor
Response #3	I feel as if it was unfair in account to have a lesson that was listed on the syllabus to be on the 2nd midterm when it was listed for the final, which didn't allow for me to properly prepare as I focused on the lessons listed for the exam. I find this out by the day after the exam we go over the next lesson and he says that it was exactly the same as the midterm but this wasn't listed(11.10), this being rather upsetting as I wasn't prepared for this situation. As well as the instructor took no blame when most of the class didn't do well on midterms, he rather stepped back even more and voiced he was upset multiple times about the results...
Response #4	N/A
Response #5	Was great at explaining the complex work. The notes written during class really helped with the homework.
Response #6	Professor Kataboh was an overall good Math 242 teacher. He would accommodate the students whenever possible during lectures, checking for comprehension and going over questions that were asked. He was very understanding and thoroughly enjoyed helping students understand the material. I found him very pleasant to listen to during lectures, as he always had a positive attitude.
Response #7	Very intelligent and kind.
